THE LARGEST SKELETON EVER FOUND—THE EXHUMATION OF AN ANTIDILUVIAN HUMAN SKELETON

[From the Sauk Rapids (Minn) Sentinel Dec 18]

Day before yesterday, while the quarrymen employed by the Sauk Rapids Water Company were engaged in quarrying rock for the dam which is being erected across the Mississippi at this place, they found imbedded in the solid granite rock the remains of a human being of gigantic stature About seven feet below the surface of the ground, and about three feet and a half beneath the upper stratum of rock, the remains were found imbedded in the sand, which had evidently been placed in the quadrangular grave which had been dug out of the solid rock to receive the last remains of this antediluvian giant The grave was twelve feet in length, four feet wide and about three feet in depth, and is to day at least two feet below the present level of the river The remains are completely petrified, and are of gigantic dimensions The head is massive, measures thirty one and one half inches in circumference, but low in the os frontis and very flat on the top The femur measures twenty six and a quarter inches and the fibula twenty five and a half while the body is equally long in proportion From the crown of the head to the sole of the foot the length is ten feet nine and a half inches The measure around the chest is fifty nine and a half inches The giant must have weighed at least nine hundred pounds when covered with a reasonable amount of flesh The petrified remains and there is nothing left but the naked bones now weigh three hundred and four and a quarter pounds The thumb and fingers of the left hand and the left foot from the ankle to the toes are gone but all the other parts are perfect

Over the sepulchre of the unknown dead was placed a large flat limestone rock that remained perfectly separated from the surrounding granite rock

These wonderful remains of an antediluvian gigantic race, are in the possession of a gentleman who has started with it to his residence East This gentleman it is said will send the remains to Boston, and possibly we may hear all that can be said on the subject by the learned in these things It is supposed by some of our ablest men among whom is General Thomas that many more skeletons will be found during the process of excavating the granite rocks in this place Some seem to think that these remains were deposited in sarcophagus prior to the formation of the present strata of rocks that now abound here but this is mere conjecture

MR NASBY [illegible] ABOUT [illegible] NEW YORK [illegible] AFTER [illegible]

Post Offis Confedrit X Roads,
Wich is in the Stait uv Kentucky
December 15 1868 }

The slockhabun uv Grant hez hed a most depressin effect upon the undersined The fact is becumin painfully evident that I can't stay very long reman here Uv course Grant will give he [illegible] to Pollock and uv course [illegible] will be his deputy This will end me [illegible] further it hez ended me Bascom last nite per[illegible] refused to give me credit for likker on less I cood in sum way seek or him in the matter uv pay [illegible] life Bascom is a rapshus but my bowels are in re[illegible] and I wuz compelled to give him a mail bag for enough to last me two days

It did not require much figgering for me to ascertain just how long I kin subsist on what government property I hev in my possession The two mail bags will buy enuff whisky to last me two days The locks belonging to em one day more, the boxes I spose I kin sell for enuff to run on a week, and then there is the tables, chairs, stove and a few other articles wich I kin dispose uv To recapitulate

2 mail bags	4 days
2 locks	1
10 boxes with glass fronts, ez good ez new hevin never bin yoosed	8
2 chairs	2
1 table	1
1 stove with place to heat water for whisky punch	6
Total	20

There is the stamp with wich dates are put onto letters the canceling stamp, and one or two other pieces uv government property wich may possibly be made available for one or two more days Then there is a possibility—a bare possibility—that sum uv our people may send a letter containing a remittance to a gift enterprise, or some one abroad may send money by mail to some one at the Corners, in wich case I shel hev supplies for a longer period But this is a mere straw to ketch at Ez our people don't read, they are not apt to send money on the strength uv advertisements and besides they ain't got the money to send Bascom hez it all

From this time out my life is prolonged misery I'm like a man in a boat in the rapids of Niagary the plunge over the falls must come

In cleaning out the government property I hev in my possession I am only follerin Democratic precedent Wat wuz left let me ask when Buchanan's people went out uv place? Its my misforchoon and A. Johnson's crime, that I'm in a place where there is so little to steal A Johnson hez in this posed me most villey I hev labored for him I hev supported him—and this is the beggarly reward for a sacrifis so great! There are hundreds wich never did the half I hev for him who hev places wich, of they have ordinary skill, will yield them hundreds of thousands when they go out, while I hev only enuff government property in my hands to furnish me sustenance for less than a month! And this is wat A Johnson wood call gratitood! This is the reward uv virchoo!

Upon the whole I don't know but that it is ez well that I shood leave the Cross Roads The fact is a community made up entirely uv Dimocrats aint a pleasant place for sich as me to live into Ez I hev to live onto the people its rather thin pickin where the people hev nothin themselves Uv wat yoose is it to hold offis whar ther ain't nothin to tax? Ef I wuz a Whisky Inspector, or Collector, or Assessor, I mite wrench a tolerable subsistence from our distillers here, Elder Pennibacker and Capt McPelter But A Johnson made Elder Pennibacker Whisky Inspector, Capt McPelter Assessor, and [illegible], who hez hed an interest in both distilleries, Collector In consekence uv this ingenious arrangement the Internal Revenoo isn't diffoosed very much The intelligent citizens are averse to labor, save what they hev to do to provide em with sustenance, and they keep it so hot for the niggers, who are the only ones who will work that they don't accumulate anything. I wuz Justis uv the Peace here one year, but uv wat avale wuz it? I hed collections enuff put into my hands, and the defendants would come up with the utmost cheerfulness and confess judgment, but alars the defendant never hed nothin that cood be attached, and the plaintiff wuz never good for the costs.

The post offis wuz worth suthin, for it gave me credit I wuz a Fedral officer, and bein one, I inspired the people with awe. Ez no one takes papers here, or receives or sends letters, the perkisits ain't large but then I hev posishen!

I shel go to Noo York Its Noo York is a field pekoolyrly adapted to me. In Noo York alder men and city offishels go as mourners at the funerals uv prize fighters In Noo York they elect gentlemen on skool boards wich are unable to write their names In Noo York John Morrisey wuz elected to Congris, and in Noo York Sammy Cox got into posishen In Noo York Ben Wood is a power, and Fernandy hez influence Look in at all uv these things I feel that there is hope for me

Financially I know that it is all right In Noo York there is fifteen millions a year to be stolen, and the facilities are so magnificent ez to make livin off the city nothin but luxurious idleness When I wuz there last and saw how easy it wuz I reely blushed for my sex

Politically it coodent be no better The Dimocrisy uv all the rest uv the country kin be teched, but our Irish fellow citizens uv Noo York are invulnerable They are splendid men and most consistent in their Dimocrisy There is no people in the world wich so love liberty—none wich hev sich a determination that all men shal be free—ceptin, uv course, niggers and others wich don't agree with them. The hatred wich the oppressed O Murphy bears to his English oppressors is only ekalled by his desire to hev a nigger wich he kin smash into the dust. There is in the Irish character an invincible hatred uv slavery—unless they kin be the masters and a undyin love uv ekality till they git on top The nigger is however their specialty

Ez there is thousands uv niggers in Noo York and ez Dimocrisy in that city means killen a nigger there aint no danger uv our ever losin that vote. Shood the nigger race run out our party wood languish, but it wood only be for a time So important is this idea to us that the leaders uv the Dimocrisy wood search the earth from the North Pole to the South, to find some race wich the Noo York Dimocrisy cood reasonably claim to be sooperior to. I don't know whether there is sich a race on the face uv the globe or not but ef there is it wood be found and imported, for sich a race we must hev So long ez there's a nigger, there'll be a Democrat

At the Cross Roads there ain't nobody to tax—in Noo York the elements are better mixed The opulent merchants and bizness men uv that charmin city make a million a year apiece and consent like gentle lambs to be sheered uv two thirds uv it to support some thousands uv gentlemen who pay nothin In Noo York we hev suthin solid to go onto Our majority can't be disturbed, and those wich don't pay taxes don't care how much them wich do are taxed—and half uv them wich don't are directly interested in taxin them wich do The Captins uv the tens git their share—the Captins uv the fifties and the hundreds likewise, only more so And ez their force makes the majority ther ain't no appeal from this

In Kentucky I am dependent upon the General Government—in Noo York they wood like to hev the Fedral offises for they can't git too much but of they don't hev em they don't care very much they only put the suction closer on the city treasury They only reason why any bizniss men voted for Seymour wuz that ef the Rings got the Fedral offises they mite possibly be easer on the city treasury and let them off with less That is they wanted the whole country to assist to support the rings, insistin uv bein compelled to do it theirselves alone

The only thing thet stands in the way uv my acquirin political influence in Noo York is the lack uv sufficient kapital to start a grocery with Ef I can git that kapital I shel start it, on a corner ef possible. I shel git control uv 10 votes wich by judishus repeatin ken be made to count fifty Then I hev suthin positive With these votes back uv me I can insist on a share—with muny I can git more votes—with more votes more muney, and with muney I kin buy posishen In Noo York the startin pint is a few votes, and votes are got by whisky My plan is to git control uv a trifle more ner I kan konsume meself.

Thank the Lord for Noo York It's not the only place where there's Dimocrisy but its where Dimocrisy kin be made the most profitable I shel in time git to Congris I shel hev contrax to clean streets I shel furnish armories with black walnut silver mounted gun racks and I may possibly hev ten or twenty years on the new court house

Uv course when I go to Noo York I shel change my naim to C Nasby and first name to Michael

The New York Election Frauds

The investigation of the gross frauds practised by the Democrats of New York in the late election is attracting very considerable attention throughout the country As incident to it we publish the following articles from New York papers

[From the New York Commercial Advertiser]

The memorial of the New York Union League in relation to the fraudulent voting was introduced in both Houses of Congress on Monday. In the House of Representatives there was a factious party objection, but the resolution appointing a committee of seven to investigate these frauds, and giving them power to sit in this State and elsewhere was adopted. The memorial of the Union League shows that there were election frauds, by comparing [illegible] for eighteen years with the census returns. Statistics show First —That the rate of annual increase in the number of voters in this city is four per cent per annum , and Second—That the proportion of the votes cast to the whole number of legal voters has ranged from seventy to ninety per cent and that ten per cent for absentees, should be deducted from the total number of voters to show the number who actually voted.

It is shown that in the Sixth Ward, where the population has largely decreased, the vote has increased It is also shown that in several [illegible] ties the vote is larger than the voting population. Considerable space is given to the method in which the fraud was perpetrated, and the [illegible] of bogus naturalization of false registry, and of repeating, are given In eleven [illegible] in the Bowery and in Baxter and Bayard streets, 232 persons were registered, when the actual number of voters was but 58

In some of the courts, proceedings were conducted without regard to order or respect for law. The memorial says "Roughs and bullies were admitted to the exclusion of re[illegible] Newspaper reporters, who attended to report the proceedings, were ejected and a member of the bar was forcibly turned out. Numbers of applicants for naturalization were vouched for by the same witnesses, and there is reason to believe that gangs of men were repeatedly passed [illegible] the judge under the assumed name of [illegible] for whom naturalization papers were [illegible] but who were unable or unwilling to take the [illegible] sary oaths " Bogus naturalization papers were hawked about the State, and distributed to large bodies of workmen—in one case to three hundred at the West Point Foundry.

The proclamation of Mayor Hoffman is introduced in the memorial, and the circular of the Democratic State Committee, signed by Mr. Tilden, but repudiated by him, is also given. The memorialists say they have evidence to show that the circular did come from the rooms of the Democratic State Committee [illegible] they have [illegible] to believe that arrangements [illegible] ance with the provisions of said circular for the transmission of telegrams, that [illegible] were received from the rural districts with [illegible] of the vote, as [illegible]; that the [illegible] returns in the city were in many [illegible] until a later hour than usual on the night of the election , that the Democratic Inspector [illegible] case declared he was [illegible] to keep [illegible] that in some districts the police were [illegible] to appoint new canvassers on account of the refusal of the Democratic canvassers to [illegible] and properly proceed with the canvassing, and that, when the returns were made in [illegible] districts at a late hour the next morning, the vote was, as already stated, largely in excess of the legal voters, and in some districts in excess [illegible] of the votes registered.

The memorial observes that the existing naturalization laws of the United States [illegible] insufficient to preserve the system [illegible] tion from abuse by gross [illegible]; that some of the State courts empowered to [illegible] citizenship, with its weighty rights and privileges, the right to exercise the suffrage, the right to hold property, and the right the world over to claim the protection of the flag, have [illegible] and improperly exercised the powers thus given; that the disclosure of such an organized [illegible] in this city to change the result of the State and Presidential elections exhibits a state of things fraught with danger to the whole body politic and demands the serious and earnest attention of Congress

[From the New York Tribune.]

The last vote of the State of New York for a Democratic candidate for the Presidency was in 1852 when it gave Franklin Pierce a majority of 27,201 over Winfield Scott. In 1856, it signified its early adherence to the young Republican party by giving John C Fremont a majority of 80,129 over James Buchanan In 1860, it gave Abraham Lincoln a majority of 50,136, and in 1864, in spite of all discouragements and frauds, once more gave him the Electoral vote of the State by 6,749. Last November, with the Republican majority [illegible] than ever throughout the country, the vote of New York is counted as going ten thousand the other way

We ask the earnest attention of Congress and of all who trustfully hope that the Government of the people by the people for the people shall not perish from the earth, to this striking array of facts It is shown

I That, as comparative statistics abundantly demonstrate, there was a fraudulent vote of about twenty five thousand in this city alone.

II That the frauds began in enormous illegal naturalizations, under the sanction of the local courts

III That they were swelled by the wholesale peddling of fraudulent naturalization papers to all that wanted them—only providing that they were known to belong to a certain party

IV That fraudulent registrations were next secured—so shamelessly flagrant in their character that for a single house in Baxter street, thirty voters were registered where absolutely only one resided, for several on Baxter street thirty to forty were registered where only fifteen resided, and for five named houses in the Bowery, ninety-two were registered where only ten resided.

V That repeating voters were abundant on election day, and that violence at the polls was employed to prevent challenges

VI That these frauds were conducted by Democratic managers aided by Democratic Judges encouraged by the proclamation of the Democratic Mayor who was himself to be helped thereby to the Governorship, and skillfully calculated upon by the Democratic State Committee as a certain means for furnishing whatever number of votes might be found necessary to overcome the Republican majority in the interior

We believe these facts capable of being established by legal evidence To that end we invite the most searching and rigidly impartial scrutiny We ask no partisan investigation for political aims but the fairest of inquiries that the purity of the ballot may hereafter be preserved and the disgrace of polluting it may fall upon the guilty parties whoever they may be, whatever stations they may hold to whatever party they may belong If Republicans did this thing let us know it If Democrats let us know that Give us a good committee, with strong and honest men of both parties on it, and let them give time and labor to the work commensurate with the villany of the frauds charged and the gravity of the peril to our institutions threatened

POUNDS STERLING Sterling is said to be an abbreviation of Easterling In the time of Richard I money coined in the eastern parts of Germany was much esteemed in England on account of its purity and was called Easterlings Some of these men skilled in all ways and in coining were sent for to bring English coin to perfection and since that time this coin has been called for them sterling

HOOK OR CROOK The origin of this old phrase is explained thus In old times in England, persons entitled to get firewood in the king's forest were limited to such dead branches as they could tear down with "a hook or crook without hurt to his majesty's trees "

The Daily Oregonian.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, JAN. 13, 1869

A Thorn in the Democratic Flesh.

The editor of the Yamhill Courier continues to ask his brethren of the Democratic press hard questions. The following are from the last issue of his paper:

> Are we a party? Have we a settled policy on which to act, and principles for our guides? Or are we a mere conglomerate of heterogeneous masses, who are thrown together by force of circumstances, into the opposition ranks?
> We are led to these reflections by finding every now and then the outcropping of some Lost Cause doctrine in a paper which aspires to be the leading herald of the Democratic party of Oregon.
> Is Jeff. Davis to-day the great leader of the Democratic party? and are Lee and Forrest and other Confederate Generals the enforcers of those doctrines?
> We want the question fairly met. We want no dodging. If secession is the main principle of national policy, we want to know what possible right the nation can have. And if secession is a doctrine of Democratic policy, we want due notice of it that we may govern ourselves accordingly.

For these utterances the Portland Commercial takes the Courier to task, and even declares that the Yamhill paper has cut loose from the principles of the Democratic party. The Courier is alone in protesting against the continued domination of secession principles in its party; not one Democratic paper in the State will side with it. In the questions propounded in the above paragraphs the editor of the Courier has exhibited a strange mixture of good sense and downright stupidity. He has judgment enough to see that his party cannot carry its odious doctrines and live; but he lacks the penetration to see that those doctrines have been so thoroughly infused into the very blood of the party that they cannot possibly be cast out. The secession virus "took" so well (to employ the language of these times) that the patient's blood is tainted with it, and he is not likely ever to recover. The simplicity with which the Courier demands to know whether its party is tied to Confederate doctrines or not, is quite amusing to witness. But the Commercial, the Herald, the Guard, and other exponents of Democratic principles, will not listen for a moment to so heretical an inquiry. They know that if the principles of the late Southern Confederacy are not those of their party, then their party has no principles at all.

Gold vs. Rags.

We wish our Democratic contemporaries would either cease talking about "gold for the bondholder and rags for the people," or condemn and repudiate those Democrats of the Thirty-Seventh Congress who voted to pay the interest of the five-twenty bonds in coin. From the official record it appears that the original proprietors of the doctrine of "gold for the bondholders" were such as Pendleton and Vallandigham. In 1862, when the question of paying interest came up in the House, Mr. Stevens opposed the proposition to pay in coin, and a majority of the Republican members stood with him. The Republican vote on the proposition was 43 ayes to 65 nays, a majority in the negative. But all the Democrats save two (Baily of Pennsylvania and Noell of Missouri) voted to pay the interest in gold and carried it. Forty-five Democrats recorded their votes in favor of paying gold. Now as this was the contract the Republicans propose to carry it out in good faith. But with this record before us, what becomes of the party clamor against gold for the bondholder, and rags for the ploughholder? Here are the names of the forty five Democrats who voted to pay the interest in coin:

Sydenham E. Ancona, of Penn.; William G. Brown, of West Va.; George H. Browne, of R. I.; Chas. B. Calvert, of Md.; George T. Cobb, of N. J.; Samuel S. Cox, of Ohio; James A. Cravens, of Ind.; John J. Crittenden, of Kentucky; Geo. W. Dunlap, of Ky.; James E. English, of Conn.; Henry Grider, of Ky.; Edward Haight, of N. Y.; Wm A. Hall, of Mo.; Aaron Harding, of Ky.; Wm. S. Holman, of Ind.; Phillip Johnson, of Pa.; Anthony L. Knapp, of Ills.; John Law, of Ind.; William E. Lehman, of Penn.; Robert Mallory, of Kentucky; Henry May, of Md.; John W. Menzies, of Ky.; Warren P. Noble, of Ohio; Elijah H. Norton, of Mo.; Robert H. Nugen, of Ohio; Moses F. Odell, of New York; GEORGE H. PENDLETON, of Ohio; Nehemiah Perry, of N. J.; James C. Robinson, of Ills.; James S. Rollins, of Mo.; William P. Sheffield, of R. I.; GEORGE K. SHIEL, of Oregon; Edward H. Smith, of N. Y.; John B. Steele, of N. Y.; Wm. G. Steele, of New York; CLEMENT L. VALLANDIGHAM, of Ohio; Chauncey Hibbard, of New York; Daniel W. Voorhees, of Indiana; Elijah Ward, of N. Y.; Edwin H. Webster, of Md.; Kellian V. Whaley, of West Va; Chas. A. Wickliffe, of Ky; George C. Woodruff, of Conn.; Hendrick B. Wright, of Penn.

THE CAUSE OF THEIR DISTRESS.—At the late session the Democrats had a large majority in both branches of the Legislature, and could have passed any measure they desired. For what was done or not done they are therefore entirely responsible. The repeated efforts of the Republicans to get them to take up the appropriation bill failed because the Democrats wanted to hold a quorum to enable them to continue the outrageous proceedings by which Oregon has been humiliated before the eyes the whole nation. When the Republicans were laboring to have the appropriation bill taken up, Chapman opposed it, telling his party friends that if it were passed they would not have a quorum at the Capitol two hours longer, and all their pet measures for working capital for their party would fail. Yet Chapman has the effrontery to charge that the Republicans defeated the appropriation bill! One of these pet measures was a new apportionment of Senators and Representatives throughout the State. They expected to gerrymander it in such a manner as to make their power secure for years. Their bill was an outrage on every principle of fairness; yet all their ravings spring from disappointment at the failure of this and other partisan schemes. It is not at all difficult to explore the causes of their tearful ululations.

NO QUESTION.—The Portland Commercial boasts that there will never be any question as to the character of its Democracy. It airs its "character" a little in the following: "The laborer (slave) was swept away by the foul pen which wrote the Abolition proclamation. Repeal your Freedmen's Bureaus, blot out your civil rights, restore the States to their original position in the Union, restore the old Constitution" (slavery and all) "and you will find the cotton crop will need no encourment." This is "true Democracy," but it is also raging madness.

LIBERAL PROGRESS. The Liberal gains on the whole elections for the New British Parliament are twenty-three seats. The representation of England remains exactly as it was. Non-Conformist Wales, Presbyterian Scotland, and Roman Catholic Ireland have returned the whole of the increased Liberal majority.

SEMI-MONTHLY TRIPS. The Postmaster-General, in view of the prospect of the early completion of the Pacific railway across the continent, recommends increasing the trips by the China and Japan steamers, so as to make them semi-monthly.

Gen. Grant and His Cabinet.

The "leading newspapers" of the East as a matter of course continue the construction and reconstruction of Gen. Grant's Cabinet with unabated confidence and zeal. But the public faith in their work is less absolute than of old, and somewhat less than could be desired for the credit of journalism.

Nobody now, so far as we are aware, pays any attention to the talk of the newspapers about Gen. Grant's Cabinet. It is announced, from day to day, that the Hon. Mr. So-and-So is certainly to go into it, whatever else may be doubtful, that is certain at all events; and the most certain of all has hitherto been the assertion that Mr. Washburne, of Illinois, was to be the Secretary of the Treasury or anything else that he might prefer. But even this rumor has been a good deal damaged by a letter from Mr. Washburne himself, in which he says:

> "So far as political position is concerned, I am content with the one assigned me for the ninth time by a generous, confiding constituency. I know but little touching Cabinet appointments, and take no stock in any newspaper talk assigning me to this or that position. The most I desire is to see General Grant's Administration a success, and see all rights of all men protected—to see an honest, economical, dignified administration of the Government, bringing to the people peace, quiet, happiness and prosperity."

The New York Times remarks that it has not the slightest doubt of the entire sincerity of these just and patriotic sentiments—which reflects more real credit on the man who feels and utters them than would any appointment in the President's gift.

Extra Session.

The Eugene State Journal discusses the extra session question in the following convincing manner. It is worthy of remark that the Unionist is the only paper professedly Republican which favors an extra session; and it admits that the only interest it has in the matter is to get a grab at the State Treasury. A paper of such a character must be proud of the immense influence (!) it is able to wield, and the high respect (!) it is able to command. The Eugene Journal says:

> A great deal is being said at this time by the papers of this State about the necessity and practicability of the Governor ordering an election to fill the vacancies caused by the resignation of the Republican members of the Legislature at its late session, and then convening the Legislature immediately. If it be true that the passage of the appropriation bill is so vitally necessary to the welfare of the State, we have no reason to believe that an extra session would pass one, judging from the action of that body at its last session. Over forty days were consumed in passing unconstitutional bills and voting ungentlemanly resolutions against honest and honorable men to satisfy party spleen and to disgrace and embarrass Oregon in the eyes of the world for years to come. The non-passage of an appropriation bill was not an oversight. The Republicans called it up time and again, evidently for the purpose of having it passed, but were defeated as often as they made the effort, and it is certainly very likely that these same Democrats would defeat its passage at an extra session as they did at the regular one. We are of the same opinion that the interests of the State demand that the Legislature remain adjourned as long as possible.

> MISCEGENATION.—The House of Representatives of the Alabama Legislature has passed a bill repealing all laws prohibiting marriages between the blacks and whites. This is the natural result of Radical rule.—Walla Walla Statesman.

Are the chivalry of Alabama so degraded that there must be a legal barrier to prevent them from marrying "niggers?" It is tolerably clear that a marriage cannot occur unless there are two parties who are willing. This habit of censuring the "Radicals" because they will not provide legal enactments to prevent the admirers of the "white man's government" theory from rushing into the conjugal embraces of Chloe or Dinah, is a favorite method of Democratic argument. What would the Walla Walla paper have? Would it impose a heavy penalty on every "nigger" who might presume to marry a white person; and does it think that this is necessary to preserve the dignity and purity of the superior race? The argument of the Walla Walla editor is, "Hold me back with legal impediments, or I'll marry a nigger as sure as you're born!"

THADDEUS STEVENS.—Senator Buckalew, (Democrat) of Pennsylvania, in sketching the character of Thaddeus Stevens on the day when the Senate was paying respect to the memory of the Old Commoner, said: "He will be remembered as a parliamentary leader; as the man who, beyond any example since Randolph and Clay, gained the ear of the House and held it for many years against all competitors—in all the years of the war and since the war—and resigned his influence only with his life. He will be remembered for his support of emancipation and colored suffrage—great questions which, whatever may be their merits, will be of enduring interest. He projected some and supported all the measures by which they were established and upheld during his life, and left his name to be associated with debate and discourse upon them hereafter." Even Democrats are sagacious enough to perceive that the surest title to immortality is to have been a champion of emancipation and equal rights.

HONOR TO OREGON.—At a recent meeting of the Board of Regents of the University of California, Judge Deady, of Oregon, was nominated by Judge McKee as one of the Regents of the University. The election will take place in March next. The California journals mention with great approbation the nomination of Judge Deady. The Oakland Transcript says:

> He is distinguished, not as a politician, but as a Jurist and a gentleman of elegant cultivation and of that nobility of presence which is necessary to command the full respect of youth. He went to Oregon when only an adventurous boy, has risen to the highest judicial situation, and has acquired a literary cultivation which is excelled by few men in the nation. He is a noble example of manhood, morally, intellectually and physically, and we earnestly hope that Judge McKee's judicious nomination will be popular with the Board of Regents.

THE "WHOLESALE DEALERS."—The New York Independent acknowledges the difficulties which lie in the way of woman suffrage, and admits that if this question is pressed it may greatly embarass the proposed suffrage amendment to the Constitution. But the Independent is not dismayed and in the plucky spirit of advanced radicalism, with great cleverness says: "This is no reason for failing to urge the woman's movement. It is the business of Radical reformers to state the absolute truth and call for the whole of justice. They are the wholesale dealers in truth, and have to do with the original packages. There is no fear but those retail tradesmen, the politicians, will measure it out, a teaspoonful at a time or a half biscuit at the time, before it reaches the consumers. Leave that to them."

The following dialogue occurred in a Cincinnati barber shop, between two of the professors:

First man and brother (reading a newspaper):—"I see dis Mr. Rosschilds, who jes died, was wof fo' hundred million dollars."

Second man and brother (strapping a razor)—"Who?"

First—"Mr. Rosschilds."

Second—"How much was he wof?"

First—"Fo' hundred million dollars."

Second—"Goshamighty! He mus' a had a good district."

First—"Good district! What do you mean?"

Second—"I mean good district; dat's what I mean. I s'pose he was a whisky inspector."

[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

DATES TO JANUARY 12.

Blair's Babble—The Election Frauds.

NEW YORK, Jan 12.—A Herald correspondent publishes an account of another interview with Gen Blair, in which the General reiterates his formerly expressed opinion, that Grant will make a dictator and an Emperor of himself before he leaves the White House.

The Congressional Committee for the investigation of the election frauds is still in session in this city. The Committee claims to have obtained overwhelming evidence of repeating oaths, and the use of false naturalization papers.

It is now generally understood that Grant will appoint Moses H. Grinnell Collector of this port.

TALLAHASSEE, Jan. 12.—Lieut. Gov. Gleason having resigned, Krenain, Republican, is elected President of the Senate pro tem. Seven Democrats voted for him, he being of conservative sentiment.

Ice Gorge on the Hudson.

ALBANY, Jan. 12.—Ice in the river above the city broke up yesterday and the water is rising slowly. No heavy inundation is anticipated, but owing to the remarkably strong current which set in from the east side of the river, very serious damage is being done to property. Several large buildings are almost ruined. The property lost together with that in danger is valued at one half million dollars.

Illinois Matters.

CHICAGO, Jan. 12.—Gov. Palmer was inaugurated yesterday at Springfield. His inaugural message is brief. The Governor denounces the attempts by Congress to charter Railroad corporations in States, or in other ways to exercise doubtful powers which can properly be exercised by State Legislatures.

Judges of the Supreme Court.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.—Mr. Sherman introduced a bill in the Senate yesterday, providing for the retirement, upon his own written application, of any Judge of the Supreme Court who attains the age of 70, upon a life pension equal in amount to his full salary; but if any Judge shall for one year after the passage of this bill, on arriving at the age of 70, continue to hold office, the President shall nominate and appoint an additional Judge, who shall perform the same duties and receive the same compensation as the Judge acting in said Court.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

LISBON, Jan. 12.—The Duke Saldonia has been summoned to Lisbon to form a new Ministry.

MADRID, Jan. 12.—Four thousand soldiers have volunteered their services in suppressing the insurrection.

ST. CATHERINES, Jan. 12.—The Bank of Montreal was entered by burglars last night. The safe was blown up and robbed of $56,000 in Canada legal tenders.

LONDON, Jan 12.—For some unexplained reason, the Grecian Ambassador at Paris, who, it was supposed, would represent Greece in the Conference, has been refused the privilege of participating. He has protested against his exclusion and appealed to the Grecian Government at Athens for instructions. The Conference will await the action of Greece in the matter. The session, announced for to-day, will be postponed for the time, in consequence.

OUR SAN FRANCISCO DISPATCH.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 12.—The Board of Supervisors have voted to cause the removal of all slaughter houses and hog ranches to Islai's Creek within forty days.

Mrs Ellen Maloney has been held in the sum of $1,000 to answer to the charge of bigamy.

At 8 o'clock last evening a man named John Anders, fell from the balcony of a two story house in Clara Lane, between Bush and Sutter streets, breaking one of his wrists and receiving severe bruises about the head.

A laborer at City Hall yesterday A. M., fell from the roof to the floor beneath, a distance of about twelve feet and severely injured him about the head.

The man who was so severely cut upon the head with a hatchet, some weeks since, died on Sunday night at the Italian hospital. His remains were taken in charge by the Coroner, who will hold an inquest.

Health officer Rowell, reports to the Supervisors no new cases of small pox—reported for the week ending Jan. 9th. The deaths in that time were thirty one, thirteen of them at the Small Pox Hospital.

The California Insurance Company declared a divident of 2 per cent. per month for the quarter ending Dec. 31st, amounting to $12,000, payable immediately.

The Fireman's Insurance Company declared a divident of 1 per cent. per month for the three months ending Dec. 31st, aggregating $15,000, payable to-morrow.

FROM THE NORTH.

SEATTLE, Jan 11.—On Saturday night several houses were broken into by a band of burglars and several articles of clothing and money stolen, amounting to about six hundred dollars. On Sunday morning parties started out in different directions in search of the burglars, and about noon, one party, consisting of four men, discovered two of them asleep in a cabin, about three miles from home. Each of them had two six-shooters lying by his side, but the muzzles of four navy revolvers pointing into their eyes, when they were aroused, had a tranquilizing effect, and after a faint show of resistance, they surrendered. Most of the clothing stolen, a number of keys and instruments for picking locks, were found in their possession. They are now undergoing examination in the Justice's Court. The one who gave his name as Daniel Brown, is believed by parties recently from Oregon, to be Mike Maloney, who is charged with being concerned in a murder and robbery at Portland. The other gives his name as George Bargoman, and is recognized as the partner of one Charles Sutton in a robbery at Independence, Oregon.

Frank Francis, a machinist, was instantly killed at Seabeck on Wednesday last. It is supposed he was caught in a belt in the machine shop attached to the saw mill.

A new schooner called the Alice Haake, was launched at Port Blakely on Wednesday last. She is 280 tons burthen.

VICTORIA, Jan. 12.—The Legislative Council went into Committee yesterday to consider the question of reciprocity with the United States.

Hon. Mr. Helmcken spoke at length in favor of the policy. After a long discussion the debate was adjourned till Wednesday next.

Snow to the depth of six inches fell at Quesnelle mouth yesterday.

BY STATE TELEGRAPH.

JACKSONVILLE, Jan. 12.—Another death from small pox occurred this morning. No new cases are reported to-day, but several patients are in a very critical condition.

Odds and Ends.

The Jews in Warsaw have a theater in which all the plays are founded on Old Testament stories, and all the parts are taken by males.

Alex. H. Stephens has been offered $25,000 for his first volume of "The War Among the States." The second volume is nearly completed.

A man being asked, as he lay sunning himself on the grass, what was the height of his ambition, coolly replied: "To marry a rich widow with a bad cough."

A New York surgeon wishes to introduce the Paris practice of removing the little toe of children and adults as a preventive of corns. An unfailing cure, doubtless.

A revivalist, encountering an African, asked him. "My good man, have you found the Lord?" To which Sambo replied, in a surprised manner: "Golly, massa, am de Lord lost?"

A BAD PRECEDENT.—The Democrats of Charleston, S. C., lately paid $650 to a negro who voted their ticket and suffered some persecution from his colored friends therefor.

STATE ITEMS.

The small pox is reported at Lancaster and Harrisburg, but the Eugene Journal discredits the report.

It is asserted that there is a case of small pox at Corvallis, but denied that there is any at Independence.

The schools of Eugene are in a prosperous condition. The number of pupils in attendance is about two hundred.

A Eugene paper says: Last Sabbath a series of meetings conducted by the Episcopalians, Presbyterians, Baptists and Methodists, commenced at the Methodist church. The attendance has been very good, and the interest much greater than could have been expected after several weeks of protracted meetings at the Baptist and Methodist churches.

John A. Taylor of Washington county writes that he "has witnessed the system of breaking and taming horses, taught by Messrs. McIntire and Harritt, and believes it to be the best plan yet discovered to cure horses of all bad tricks. Those gentlemen can do all they advertise, and not only do it themselves, but teach the system to others in a short time. Their terms are liberal, and they furnish each scholar with a book that explains the whole system and has many valuable receipts for curing the different diseases horseflesh is subject to."

EX-GOVERNOR WISE'S PROPERTY RESTORED TO HIM. The property of ex-Governor Wise, in Princess Anne County, Virginia, which has been in the possession of the Government, and occupied by squatting negroes for several years, has at length been restored to its owner, but in a wretchedly dilapidated condition. The restoration is made under the order from the Bureau of Refugees, Freedmen and Abandoned Lands, bearing date October 9, 1866, from which we make the following extract:

"It appearing that certain parcels of abandoned lands are yet borne upon the returns of this Bureau in some of the States, and unconditional amnesty and pardon for participation in the rebellion having been declared by the President of the United States, it is directed that all lands and tenements held by this Bureau as abandoned, be restored to the owner thereof, except in cases where the Government has acquired the title by due process of law."

Governor Wise will have to get the negroes off as best he can—the Government will not assist him.—Richmond Dispatch.

RAILROAD ITEM.—While some men are trucks to bear the burdens of the earth, or furnace-grates to bear the fires and to be consumed in obscurity, other are driving-wheels, which give life and motion to all with whom they are connected. Kohn & Fishel, the leading Dry Goods merchants of Portland, are the driving-wheels of trade in that city. They conceived and carried on to completion a work nobler than the Pyramids, grander than the gardens of Nineveh, or the walls of Babylon; for their work is not a monument for the dead, neither the gratification of a luxurient fancy, but it is a new pathway for purchasers, a link to bind the chain of families and the hearts of men.

SAIL UNDER FALSE COLORS!!

THE BEST EVIDENCE OF THE VALUE OF AN article may be found in the fact of its having numerous imitators. Every fine poem has its parodies; every meritorious literary work is subject to plagiarisms, every successful play has been burlesqued; every honest man has his detractors; every genuine dollar has been counterfeited; and every valuable medicinal preparation has its vile imitations. The proprietors of have encountered the usual experience in this respect. Such has been the success of this sterling preparation, that all inferior articles of the kind have virtually been driven from the market. The concocters of these beverages, finding that this new Tonic has exactly met the public want, and that no further demand exists for inferior preparations, have resorted to the dishonest expedient of imitating either the name or the style of label, both of which have been duly secured by the laws of the State to the proprietors of the I X L Bitters.

In justice to ourselves, as well as to the public who may be deceived by these nefarious practices, we hereby notify all parties guilty of infringement on our rights as well as those who have been buying up our old bottles in order to palm off their own nostrums as the genuine article, that they will be prosecuted to the full extent of the law.

For the further protection of consumers, we would state that we never sell our Bitters in bulk, but always by the case. Look for our Trade Mark on every bottle; and in ordering the article otherwise than direct from us, be sure to order, "Dr. Henley's Wild Grape Root I X L Bitters," and don't allow yourself to be imposed upon with an inferior article.

ANOTHER IMPORTANT SUIT — On Monday a complaint was filed in the office of the Clerk of the Circuit Court in which the plaintiff A[illegible] Cowan and Chas Cowan [illegible] her husband and James [illegible] and Thomas Ste[illegible] set up a claim to the [illegible] The complaint recites that [illegible] prior to 1848 [illegible] John [illegible] was [illegible] to the possession of this land [illegible] that he died while a resident [illegible] of the land in 1848 and had not at the time of his death relinquished [illegible] in any way disposed of his right that under the treaty of [illegible] 15th, 1846 his right to the land was reserved to him as a British subject along with the reservations of other British subjects that his right descended to his children, of whom Amelia [illegible] now Amelia Cow[illegible] is the only [illegible] [illegible] upon the claim was [illegible] of the [illegible] John [illegible] etc etc. The plaintiffs also claim [illegible] the value of certain stock [illegible] the place at the time [illegible] D H [illegible] and about twenty others were named as defendants [illegible] [illegible] of this suit will [illegible] aspect of an already much [illegible] contest [illegible] in interest will [illegible] be counted [illegible] the [illegible] Jarndyce v Jarndyce will stand in danger of being eclipsed

WALLA WALLA ITEMS —We clip the following items from the Walla Walla Statesman of the 9th inst Sheriff [illegible] collected and paid over to the County Treasurer, for the month ending Dec 31st 1868 the sum of $4 [illegible] [illegible] were on account of the years [illegible] and [illegible] A man who wears the garb of a Catholic clergy[man] is traveling through this valley and endeavoring to [illegible]. He is described to us as a man about thirty years of age, who in some way has picked up a smattering [illegible] but has no claim whatever to recognition as [illegible] The public will beware of the imposter. The [illegible] officers of Enterprise Lodge No 2 I O O F [were insta]lled on Wednesday evening last. The [officers] of the term are John M [illegible] N G [illegible] V G [illegible] R S [illegible] Walla Walla Lodge No [illegible] A F & A M [elec]ted the following officers for the ensuing year [illegible] W M, G Savage S W J Gardiner J W; A [illegible] Treasurer; Chas W Frush, Secretary; J Beck [illegible] The officers were installed by D G M Fred Stine [on New] Years Day. —A series of lectures will be deliver[ed in the] new schoolhouse under the management of the [illegible] for the purpose of raising a fund to [complete] the building, and meet incidental school ex[penses] —The ball of the Washington Fire Company, on [New Year's] night, turned out a grand success A gen[tleman who] crossed the mountains by way of the Sno[qualmie Pass on] Christmas day, reports the snow on the [summit] two and a half feet deep This is the route [the Northern] Pacific Railroad most likely will follow in [reaching] tide-water, and this report is important as [showing] the light fall of snow at that particular point

[SLEEPING] IN CHURCH —We find the following use[ful] [illegible] which might be practically applied in some of [our] churches, with great advantage to all con[cerned]:

[Sleepers] go upon the assumption that sleeping [in church] is religious duty and that in the perform[ance] of it, as in all other practices there should be a [proper] way of doing it [illegible] an improper manner of performing this duty to [illegible] the plain reason that the worshiper attracts too [much attention]. We are everywhere taught to avoid os[tentatious] display in our worship. The Pharisees were [condemned] for praying at corners of the street, that they [might be] seen of men. On the same principle the nod[ding sleeper] is condemned for he is making too pub[lic a display] of his devotions

[illegible] it proper to snore in the performance of this [duty], [partly] for the foregoing reasons, but mainly be[cause it is a] direct infraction of the golden rule. Sup[pose] [illegible] that your next door neighbor is asleep; [illegible] he will be disturbed probably awakened [illegible] doing unto others as you would they should [do unto you].

[It is wrong] to injure one's health while offering wor[ship]. All physicians admit that to sleep with the [head thrown] back and the mouth wide open is liable to [produce sore] throat and hoarseness. Besides flies some[times get] into the mouth on such occasions, and by their [illegible] tickle the delicate membranes and [illegible] [illegible] [irrit]ations and coughing, which is very [injurious] to health

To sleep with head resting on the arms of the wor[shiper] [illegible] face buried up to the cuffs of the coat is [illegible] way of offering sleep worship. First [because] it is also injurious to health, and mainly, because [it is a] violation of the scriptures, which com[mands] [illegible] light so shine that men may profit by our [example]. In this case it is impossible to know whether [the] worshiper is asleep or awake. It is a pos[itive sign] of lukewarmness—neither the one thing nor [the other].

[NEW PAP]ER AT WALLA WALLA —We received last even[ing] [illegible] of a new Republican newspaper to be [published at] Walla Walla, about the 1st of February, by E. [illegible] & Co , and to be called The Walla Walla Union. "It is the design of the publishers to make it an [excellent] Family Paper, a good Local paper, a sound [illegible] and pay particular attention to making it a [first-class] excellent advertising medium. This Terri[tory must] soon, in the rapid advancement of the Pacific [States] and Territories, the almost incredulous approach [illegible] the superior advantages in timber, tillable [land], natural harbors and navigable waters offered to [illegible] become one of the brightest of the galaxy of [illegible] in this glorious Union. The [dissemination] of [knowl]edge relating to our local affairs our [resour]ces and [capab]ilities is one of the great levers to be used in bring[ing about] this desirable result." The Union will be pub[lished] every Saturday. Subscription price, four dollars [a year], or two and a half for six months

[illegible] THEATER.—The popular French drama, "The [illegible]," was played again last evening at Oro [Fino Thea]ter, to a small audience as compared with that [of the first] night. So limited a turnout is unaccount[able] [illegible] on the first night of the piece re[illegible] [illegible] demonstration of approval, and we [illegible] spoken of in the highest terms the following day, [by all] who saw it. It is a very fine play—[illegible] showing French life in almost every as[pect] [illegible] certainly the personations of characters were [illegible]. The slim attendance of last evening cannot there[fore be] attributable, either to the play or the stage peo[ple]. [illegible] Thayer, Miss Field, Robi[illegible], [and] Miss Cummings are all in first rate characters [illegible] is really no reason why there should [illegible] whenever the play is [illegible]. It [will be rep]eated to-night for the last time

[illegible] CHURCH —We learn that the Lutheran soci[ety] [illegible] contemplate the purchase of a site on [illegible] a fine Church edifice, the coming season [illegible] will hold a meeting this evening in the [illegible] Church to take measures toward [illegible] The congregation has [illegible] from twelve [illegible] the beginning to fifty two in the brief time of [illegible] some of our most substantial citizens are [illegible] the [illegible] above mentioned will undoubted[ly] [illegible] during the present year

[illegible] The Recorder had before him, yesterday [illegible] who had the night before, amused them[selves] [illegible] pistol exercise. One of them, Frank [illegible] was charged with assaulting Anthony Wilkins [illegible] shooting at Wilkins, and carrying a [illegible]. He was held to answer on the first [illegible] was continued; and on the third, he [illegible] ten days. Wilkins on the charge of [illegible] with a pistol, will have an examina[tion]

[illegible] —Mr Robinson, who arrived down [to th]is City on Monday evening, says the winter in [illegible] [unusua]lly mild that mining operations are [illegible] summer time. There has been but [illegible] the valleys, though the fall has been quite [illegible] mountains. It is anticipated that the supply [illegible] and early summer operations will be [illegible] the season will be a prosperous one. There [illegible] of importance.

[illegible] —We find in an exchange paper an elabor[ate account of] the doings at a "Forefather's Celebration," [illegible] the following sentence: "The dinner [illegible] with the artistic excellence of the culinary [illegible] all of Delmonico's efforts in that [illegible] off with the Divine blessing invoked [by] [illegible]." "Artistic excellence" in [that] line was never better "topped off" than [illegible]

[illegible] THE SCHOOLS —The Directors of the [illegible] have ordered that all pupils attending the [schools] must be vaccinated. [If] it be not done by the [illegible] appointed by the Directors, will attend [illegible] and perform the operation upon the chil[dren] [illegible] who fail to have their children vaccin[ated] [illegible] to submit to the order, will of course [keep] their children at home

[illegible] of the death by small pox of Miss [illegible] near the Dalles, has been confirmed. She [came down as a passen]ger by the Continental on her last trip [illegible] several days in this city and then went [to] relatives opposite and not far from the Dalles [illegible] time before she died, she was thought to be [illegible] recovery

COURT—DEADY, J —The following pro[ceedings] [were] had in this court yesterday [illegible] Lamb et al vs I A Davenport et al in [illegible] cause set for hearing on Monday next [illegible] until Monday next [illegible] —We learn that within the last night or [two] [illegible] cases of boat stealing, have occurred along the [river] here. A fine whitehall boat was stolen fr[om] [illegible] of the ferry boat at Milwaukie and [illegible] Mr Lowelling. No clue to the thieves.

[POSTP]ONED —The lecture in aid of the Port[land Library Asso]ciation announced for last evening at [illegible] Hall was not delivered in consequence of [illegible] the lecturer, Dr Wythe. It is postponed [till Tuesda]y evening, the 19th

[illegible] —The steamship Active sailed last evening for [San Francisco] carrying a good cargo of produce and the following [passe]ngers A Reed M B Riley A Kin[illegible] Hart, J Weil H E Lesyoninski

[illegible] —The First Unitarian Society of Port[land held its] annual meeting, last evening, to receive the [reports of its] officers and to elect trustees for the [ensuing] year.

[illegible] —There will be an adjourned meeting of the [illegible] Club, at Buchtel's Gallery, at 7 o'clock [this evening], and all the members are requested to be [present].

The latest dog story is related of an old favorite in Gloucester, Mass, that had become infirm from age yet the owner did not like to kill him. One day recently, a friend remarked in a low tone "That dog ought to be killed, he is not good for anything!" The animal looked mournfully up into the speaker's face, then taking a wistful gaze around the store, at those present deliberately walked out of the door to the railway—plunged into the water and was drowned

SEYMOUR'S MAJORITY IN NEW YORK In ascertaining Seymour's majority over Grant in New York we are not to be confined to votes for Electors at Large but we are to take any vote on the ticket. Now, we find that two electors on the Grant ticket got higher votes than either Selden or Roberts, and this is Grant's strength to be set against the highest vote on Seymour's ticket which was Slocum's. It is not to be lost sight of that the people voted for Seymour and for Grant on a general ticket containing many nominees. The highest vote on Seymour's ticket is to be reckoned for him and the highest on Gen Grant's for him. The highest on the Seymour ticket is 42[illegible],564 for Slocum, the highest on Grant's ticket is 419,915 received by George S Batch[eller] and also by Patrick C Costello. [illegible] from 429,889, and there remains [illegible] which is Seymour's majority. Those who have laid money that Seymour would get 40,000 majority in this State have lost, unless Congress should throw out the vote of New York in which case the bets would be drawn.

HOW BARON ROTHSCHILD CONCEALED HIS WEALTH —To the astonishment of all, on the day when Baron Rothschild's affairs had to be looked into, he owned that his fortune was more than double the amount his children supposed as his books indicated and that his private business amounted to over a milliard. And this is how he kept statisticians on the wrong scent. He had opened accounts for false debtors under false names, unto whom he would pay in millions and millions regularly. There was a book for a certain Petro, at Constantinople, another for Prince N at Moscow another for a nabob Nana Syeb, at Bombay and twenty others or more, while he would personate these supposed individuals, thus paying the sums they gained to all appearance to himself. He would follow up the fluctuations of finances in all these different parts of the world just as if these parties did exist and place all the specie out to accumulate while his private documents confirmed that he was the nabob or viceroy, or prince. Thus Rothschild [illegible] gained $300,000,000 in 1844

THE SAN FRANCISCO HERALD.
On the FIRST OF JANUARY 1869 THE SAN FRANCISCO HERALD will be revived as a first class Commercial Daily Newspaper Independent in politics under the Editorial control of its former Editor, JOHN NUGENT assisted by a thoroughly efficient and able Staff. The Herald will be issued as a Morning Paper but there will be an Afternoon Edition prepared for the interior of the State and for Nevada with the Market Stock and Local Reports up to the hour of going to press
It is the design of the proprietors to establish the best newspaper that—by the aid of unlimited means [illegible] highest order of talent in all its departments—can be produced on this coast, making it, in all essential particulars as much a necessity to the Mercantile and Business Public and as valuable as a newspaper as any of the first-class New York Journals. It will be the chief aim of its proprietors—by the accuracy of its information on all matters of Business to give it a staple reputation for thoroughness and reliability as a Commercial and Business Paper, at the same time that the ability of its conduct in the other departments—Law, Literature Local Intelligence, and other [departme]nts that go to make up a Daily Morning Paper—it shall likewise be kept up to the highest standard.
While the vast Agricultural Interests and the rapidly growing Manufacturing Industry of the State will be earnestly promoted as well Editorially as in the News Department, that interest which drew hither the first grand tide of immigration will be fostered with special care. Everything worthy to be known in connection with Mining Enterprises, and all inventions and discoveries calculated to enhance the profits or stimulate the labor of the Miner shall be duly chronicled and described
Mr Nugent whose ability as an Editor is sufficiently known will be assisted by gentlemen whose judgments have been educated and matured by long and varied experience in their respective Departments
TERMS, ETC The San Francisco Herald will be published every morning, and will be furnished to subscribers at 50 cents per week, payable to the Carriers single copies 10 cents. It will be mailed to subscribers outside the city at Eighteen Dollars a year, payable in advance 6 months Nine Dollars 3 months, Five Dollars.
Communications intended for the Editor should be addressed to John Nugent, 414 California street, San Francisco. Business letters may be sent to

Joining the Masons

Knobbs has joined the Masons and here is his experience in getting into a Lodge

I must tell you of the perils and trials I had to undergo to become a Mason On the evening in question I presented myself at the door of Lodge-room No 3t 666, sign of the skull and crossbones I was conducted to an ante-room, where five or six melancholy chaps in [illegible] and embroidered napkins were waiting to receive me On my entrance they all got up and turned back summersaults and then [illegible] their seats A big fat fellow who sat in the middle, and who seemed to be the proprietor then said "Sinner from the other world, advance!" I advanced "Will you give up everything to join us" "Not if I know it," I said "there are my wife and fourteen [illegible]" Another party here told me to say, "Yes," as it is merely a matter of form So I said "Yes I give up everything." The fellows in the towels then groaned and said "'Tis well. Do you swear never to reveal anything you may see or hear this evening to any human being nor your wife?" I said "Pon my word, I will not" They then examined my teeth and felt my taste of liquor, and made me put out my tongue then groaned again I said, "If you don't feel well I have got a little bottle there" The fat man here took the bottle from me and told me to shut up. He then, in a voice of thunder said, "Bring forth the goat!" Another fellow [illegible] up with a big cloth to blind me "No, you don't, Mr Mason" I said "no tricks on travelers if you please I don't believe in playing blindman's buff with a goat I'll ride the devil if you like but I don't go it blind Stand back or I'll knock you into smithereens." They were too much for me, however, so I had to submit to being blindfolded. The goat was then led in, and I [illegible] him making an awful racket [illegible] furniture I began to feel that I was [illegible] wanted at home but I was in for it [illegible] not help myself Three or four fellows then seized me, and with a demoniacal laugh pitched me on the animal's back, telling me at the same time to look out for squalls I have b[illegible] in a good many scrapes, Mr Editor, I have been in election fights, I've been [illegible] a four-story window I have gone [illegible] in a railroad collision, but this little goat excursion was ahead of them all The [illegible] thing must be all wings and horns It bumped me against chairs and ta[illegible] [illegible] the floor and the ceiling, but I hung on like a Trojan. I turned front som[illegible] [illegible] I thought it was all [illegible] I was just on the point of giving up, when the bandage fell from my eyes and the goat bounded through the window with a [illegible] like a Comanche Indian giving up the g[illegible]. I was in a Lodge of Masons They [illegible] dancing a war-dance around a big [illegible], and playing leapfrog and turning hand [illegible], the big fat fellow of the ante-room was standing on his head in the corner

[illegible] Sensations Underground — The [illegible]ordinary fact discovered by the electric [illegible], that earthquakes are not felt at a [illegible] distance underground, or in the [illegible] to be [illegible] a fact.
